Jennifer Feoli, Office Manager for Auger states they are very happy with Valpak because they notice the phone rings when people get their Valpak Coupons bringing in new accounts with a variety of needs ranging from Landscapes to weekly mowing to building patios to snow plowing. They said they like it, too, because it has helped maintain their business branding so that the community knows who they are and everything that they do; that's important to them. They use many other forms of advertising but agree that Valpak outperforms them all. When asked why they love Valpak so much Jennifer said "Because It WORKS!"
