Gregg Schwietzer, owner of Bubby's NY Style Delicatessen first started with Valpak back in September 2016. Gregg wanted to increase his business profile and awareness within the community, promote special offers and generate new business. We asked Gregg to comment on how his Valpak programs (print & digital) are working for him and Bubby's Deli, he stated "I am seeing a lot of new customers and those customers are becoming repeat customers. It has been a great experience working with Kris Wirth. She is attentive to my business needs and brought a new perception to my opinion of Valpak. Valpak has been beneficial for us. I really appreciate the Valpak reporting tools as it helps me to see how well I am doing. Valpak has exceeded my expectations. I would recommend working with Valpak on all business ventures!"
