David Brambila has been running his restaurant with Valpak for over 9 months and uses his Valpak marketing programs to bring in New Customers. We asked David to tell us about his Valpak experience and successes; "We are seeing a lot of coupons coming back. We also take advantage of Valpak's premier Digital Program and we see quite of few digital printed coupons coming back as well and we are very happy with that. We are only doing Valpak right now as it has been very successful and we would recommend it to every business owner. We just renewed our agreement with Valpak because it works so well for us!"
