Jennifer Burnell, the owner of Covered Bridge has been running with Valpak since April 2016. Jennifer first started with Valpak because they live in a small town and wanted to bring customers up from the Concord, NH market, which is over an hour away. We asked Jennifer how Valpak is performing for her given the distance and she stated "We ran a few years ago and renewed this year. We have received over 10 coupons in 3 months. Valpak brought in customers who have never been to our restaurant. When then asked Jennifer how Valpak compared to other forms of advertising and what she liked most about our program, she went on to say "We have done Spectrum and local papers, we get more response from Valpak. I love how Valpak gets us Brand New Customers to our restaurant. We Love Valpak and will always use it!"
