I like using Valpak to advertise seasonally year after year. We do a really good job at Envy Tanning in keeping our customers once they come in so it's really important to me to bring in new customers, those that are new to tanning, or those who have been to other salons. Not every salon is the same, and once they come in, they know the difference. Valpak entices them to take advantage of us. We like seeing the coupons come in. Many times, customers will try a new service such as spray tanning BECAUSE of Valpak. I like sharing the Valpak digital coupon on our Facebook Page too! It's great to have the variety of methods to reach more people.
