Mike Race, owner of Habitat for Humanity Restore uses his marketing programs to help raise his business profile and awareness. Mike also likes to promote special offers and events while generating new leads. Mike uses other direct mail but Strongly Agrees that Valpak outperforms them all by a wide margin. When asked what he thought about his Valpak Marketing Program he stated "We have been with Valpak for only 4 months and received over 70 calls. We love it. We would recommend Valpak to anyone who is looking for and needs New Business. Valpak has beaten any other forms of advertising we have done!"
