Ping Zheng, owner of Kashin Garden strongly agrees that his Valpak Advertising outperforms other marketing methods he has used in the past. Ping states "I've been with Valpak for over 1 year and I love when the coupons come in. We receive 30-40 coupons per month. We will continue using Valpak to generate revenue. I feel the reason why it's working so well is because we are in Valpak every single month." When asked about Valpak's Digital Programs Ping went on to say "We receive a lot of feedback on the Digital part of Valpak. I am very happy with the success we are having with Valpak and would highly recommend them to every business owners looking to grow revenue and see new customers!"
