Madeline Kariotis advertises Nashua House of Pizza to raise her business profile and awareness as well as to promote new specials & products. Madeline does other forms of advertising but since partnering with Valpak she agrees that we outperform them all, stating "I just put a call tracking number on my ad and have received over 50 calls in one month. I love it! We will continue using Valpak!" Madeline also takes advantage of Valpak's Digital programs and when asked she stated "Love the digital, people come in with the printed coupon off the Valpak website. I love how customers can go online and find us." Madeline stated that she would highly recommend her Valpak Programs, both print & digital to any business owner serious about growing their sales and bringing in new customers.
