Jay Back owner of Pro-Vision Automotive (Hudson, NH) advertises to raise his business profile & awareness within in his primary markets and to generate leads / new business. Jay does other forms of advertising but Strongly Agrees that VALPAK outperforms them all. We asked Jay to comment about his VALPAK Direct Mail Programs, he stated "We get a good response rate and see many new customers who become regulars. We are happy with Jim's service, he is very patient with me, and can always count on his helpful ideas." Jay also takes advantage of Valpak's Digital programs and when asked to comment he stated "We see a lot of online coupons and many new customers due to our online advertising with Valpak!" Jay and Pro-Vision have been doing business with Valpak dating back to 2011. Jay would highly recommend Valpak to any business owner serious about growing sales and bringing in new customers.
