Dave markets his Landscaping Business to raise his profile and build awareness within his primary markets. Dave also promotes special offers and hopes to bring in new clients from his marketing programs. Dave does other forms of advertising such as Newspaper and other Direct Mail and Agrees that Valpak outperforms them all. When asked about his Valpak Programs Dave stated "I started last year and signed up for six (6) more months. We are getting calls from Valpak and just received a $2,000 Irrigation. I just resigned as we are very happy with the results!" When asked about his Digital Programs and if he would recommend Valpak to other business owners Dave went onto say "YES! I would recommend Valpak. It's nice that Valpak is partnered with Google and other Apps. My coupon is shared on several Apps through Valpak and Digital is the next generation!"
