Craig Lacrosee, owner of Roofing King has been mailing with Valpak since February 2018. He first started out mailing solo direct mail postcards and then started mailing in the Valpak Envelope. We asked Craig to tell us how his Valpak is working, "I love Valpak. I love working with my rep Scott Gianitsis as he is extremely helpful. I started with 120,000 homes on a test program but just signed onto a program doing 60,000 homes a month. Valpak works great for me. We were already receiving 10-15 calls a month but now we are moving into Springtime!" We then asked Craig how Valpak compares to other firms he has used and if he would recommend Valpak to other Home Improvement businesses "I have done the Lowell Sun in the past, but Valpak clearly outperformed them. I would recommend Valpak to every business owner if they are looking for results and great people to work with; Valpak is the place to be!"
